

CLASS: - IIILESSON: - 4

purpose computing machine.

Q4) Write a short note on Harvard Mark - I.

Ans The most significant effort towards developing an electro-mechanical computer was made by Howard H. Aiken. In 1944 he developed one of the first computers, the Automatic Sequence Controlled Calculator (ASCC). The Harvard Mark-I was 50 feet long, 8 feet tall and weighed approx 5 tones.