

S. St
CLASS: 6

PRACTICE FOR FORMATIVE ASSESSMENT

Based on
CCE

- A. 1. History means the study of the past.
2. We know about the history of past from the evidences which our archaeologists analyze.
3. Traditions, folk tales, works of art, archaeological objects, books are the main sources of history.
- B. 1. Valmiki; 2. Ved Vyas; 3. Kautilya; 4. Megasthenes

PRACTICE FOR SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT

Based on
CCE

- A. 1. (iii); 2. (iii); 3. (ii); 4. (iii)
- B. 1. archaeological; 2. literary; 3. archaeological; 4. literary; 5. literary
- C. 1. Inscriptions; 2. Literary source; 3. Kautilya; 4. Archaeologist
- D. 1. Inscription; 2. Monument; 3. Archeological sources; 4. Religious literature; 5. Secular literature
- E. 1. If something occurred thousands of years ago, we find out what actually happened at the time from the evidences like a piece of writing, a wall painting which archaeologists analyze is called archeology.
2. The archaeological sources of study the past are
(a) Inscriptions; (b) Monuments; (c) Other objects like coins, jewellery
3. Written records engraved on rocks, pillars, cave walls, wall of forts, palaces are called inscriptions.
4. Literature that is not religious is called secular literature. These include poems, plays, accounts of foreign travellers and works on science and politics.
- F. 1. We know about the past by traces such as traditions, folk tales, works of art, archaeological objects, books and other written records.
The sources that are used to study the past are given below :
(a) Archaeological sources: They are of three kinds inscriptions, monuments and other objects like coins, textiles, jewellery etc.
(b) Literary sources: The written records of the past are called manuscripts. They are divided into two religious literature and secular literature.
2. The purpose of studying history are:
(a) It helps us to understand better how people of other times acted and thought.
(b) It help us to know our country's heritage as means of developing patriotism.
(c) It tells us how our national way of life developed.