English Grammar

USE OF 'A' and 'AN'

Points to remember:-

★ The English alphabet has twenty-six letters.

The letters a, e, i, o, u are called vowels.

All the other letters of the alphabet are called consonants.

① We use 'a' before the naming words beginning with a consonant sound.

② We use 'an' before the naming words beginning with a vowel sound.

Q A Fill in the blanks with 'a' or 'an'.
