The Wind on Haunted Hill :-

Answer the following questions:-

Q1. The village counter the force of the wind in their daily life by keeping large stone on their tin roof to prevent them from being blown off.

Q2. Usha compelled to halt her journey back home because sky had darkened and strong wind had echoed over the hills and he also felt the drop of heavy rain. Then she took shelter in the ruins.

Q3. No, this was not Usha's first visit to the ruins, because:-

(i) she remembered about the empty room stood and old fire place.

(ii) she remembered about the part of an old roof that would give some shelter.
